FINANCE TO BE OFFERED FALL QUARTER

Beginning Fall Quarter 1989, the School of Business will offer a concentration in finance. According to Dean Crawford Buchanan, the University has offered some finance courses in the past, but fall will mark the first quarter that full concentration in finance is available.

"Quite a few of the area financial institutions as well as our own students have requested that we offer this course of study. The results of the Educational Needs Assessment Survey confirmed that there is widespread interest in a finance offering," stated Mr. Buchanan. "This offering will permit an even greater degree of specialization for the business field."

The curriculum for the new concentration in finance will include:

Bachelor's Degree Requirements:

*General Studies - 69 hours;

*Business Administration Core - 65 hours;

*Finance Courses - 40 hours;

*Free Electives - 11 hours.

PROSPECTIVE STUDENT SEMINAR

The Office of Recruiting and Student Activities will hold a prospective student seminar on Thursday, August 31, 11 a.m. - 1 p.m. and again from 5 - 7 p.m. in the ballroom of Houston Hall. Representatives will be present from the College of Arts and Sciences, the School of Business, the School of Education, the Admissions Office, and the Financial Aid Office to answer questions. For more information, contact Mrs. Courtney Hardyman at ext. 226.

CENTER FOR APPLIED RESEARCH PUBLISHES NEWSLETTER

"Funding Opportunities," the Center for Applied Research's new bi-monthly newsletter, was distributed for the first time in July.

The purpose of the newsletter is to alert TSUD faculty and staff to announcements by different agencies of contracts and grants which will be available. Center personnel will scan various documents and will locate announcements which may be of interest to individuals in the University. Brief summaries of the opportunities will be printed in the newsletter.

Anyone interested in having the Request for Proposal (RFP) for a particular announcement and in learning more about the opportunity should contact the Center Director. The Center will then secure relevant materials and help contact key individuals.

If the decision is made by the faculty or staff member to write a proposal, the Center will assist in any way it can. The Center can do background bibliographic searches, secure various types of demographic information, locate applicable regulations, and help in printing the proposal document. As time allows, help in writing will be provided.

For more information, contact Dr. John Hayman at ext. 281.

TICKET ORDERS AVAILABLE

Faculty/staff ticket order forms for the 1989 TSU football season are available in room M-8 on the Mezzanine. For more information, contact Mrs. Bonnie Stafford at ext. 212.

REIMBURSEMENT FOR SCHOOL COUNSELING COURSES

Beginning Fall Quarter 1989, currently employed teachers can receive full tuition reimbursement for courses taken in pursuit of certification in school counseling.

Educators who already have class "A" or masters level certification in teaching should write the Teaching Certification Office in Montgomery to request an evaluation of their credentials in order to determine what courses they need to take. Teachers should notify their superintendent of their interest in the program.

Teachers who possess a class "B" or baccalaureate degree certification and are interested in pursuing a master's degree in school counseling should submit an application to their local superintendent. The University will work with the teacher to plan the student's coursework.

Participants in this program will be reimbursed for tuition and books once they have completed the course and have submitted proof of a grade of "B" or better to their superintendent. Teachers will not be reimbursed for courses taken prior to the fall of 1989.

For more information, contact the School of Education.

TSUD PERSONNEL ATTEND CONFERENCES

Dr. Elizabeth Majors recently returned from an educational leadership conference in Tarpon Springs, FL. Several well known national leaders discussed the present and future tasks of educators as they strive to prepare U.S. citizens for life in a rapidly changing world. Dr. Majors reports that each speaker expressed the view that education will be America's "knight in shining armor." Dr. Majors summarized what she learned at the conference saying, "Education must be re-tooled so that the process will become a permanent one that gives nurture to the developing child, the young adult, and on across the life span. Educators must train Americans for a high tech world so they can look beyond mediocrity and take their rightful place as pioneers of a new world - a new world where a balance is sought in economic, social, and spiritual reality.

Mr. Tony Whetstone participated in the Annual Conference of the Society for College and University Planning (SCUP) held in Denver, CO in July. Nearly seven hundred people from across the nation attended the four-day conference. Mr. Whetstone reports that he received valuable information on topics such as: the future of technology in higher education; planning facilities, grounds, etc.; planning for the future; making better use of available resources.
